Furthermore, Plaintiff IGNACIO CESARIO worked an excess of ten (10) hours per day, six (6) days a week from in or around June 2020 until in or around March 2021, Defendants did not pay Plaintiff an extra hour at the legally prescribed minimum wage for each day worked over ten (10) hours, a blatant violation of the spread of hours provisions contained in the NYLL.

VICTORINO GUZMAN

43. Plaintiff VICTORINO GUZMAN was employed by Defendants at CORY REALTY, INC. d/b/a DEVIN'S FISH AND CHIPS from in or around November 2017 until in or around February 2020.
44. During Plaintiff VICTORINO GUZMAN'S employment by Defendants at CORY REALTY, INC. d/b/a DEVIN'S FISH AND CHIPS, Plaintiff's primary duties were as an assistant cook, performing other miscellaneous duties.
45. Plaintiff VICTORINO GUZMAN was paid by Defendants:

- i. approximately $11.50 per week from in or around November 2017 until in or around December 2018.
 - ii. approximately $12.00 per week from in or around January 2019 until in or around February 2020.
46. Therefore, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff VICTORINO GUZMAN the legally prescribed minimum wage for his hours worked from in or around November 2017 until in or around February 2020, a blatant violation of the minimum wage provisions contained in the FLSA and NYLL.
47. Plaintiff VICTORINO GUZMAN worked approximately sixty-nine (69) hours or more hours per week at CORY REALTY, INC. d/b/a DEVIN'S FISH AND CHIPS.
48. Although Plaintiff VICTORINO GUZMAN worked approximately sixty-nine (69) or more hours per week during his employment by Defendants, Defendants did not pay Plaintiff time and a half (1.5) for hours worked over forty (40), a blatant violation of the overtime provisions contained in the FLSA and NYLL.
49. Furthermore, Plaintiff VICTORINO GUZMAN worked an excess of ten (10) hours per day, six (6) days a week from in or around November 2017 until in or around February 2020, Defendants did not pay Plaintiff an extra hour at the legally prescribed minimum wage for each day worked over ten (10) hours, a blatant violation of the spread of hours provisions contained in the NYLL.
50. Factual allegations as to all plaintiffs, Defendants willfully failed to post notices of the minimum wage and overtime wage requirements in a conspicuous place at the location of their employment as required by both the NYLL and the FLSA.
51. Defendants willfully failed to keep accurate payroll records as required by both NYLL and the FLSA.
52. As a result of these violations of Federal and New York State labor laws, Plaintiff seeks compensatory damages and liquidated damages in an amount exceeding $100,000.00. Plaintiff also seeks interest, attorneys' fees, costs, and all other legal and equitable remedies this Court deems appropriate.

COLLECTIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

53. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself, and other employees similarly situated as authorized under the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 216(b). The employees similarly situated are the collective class.
54. Collective Class: All persons who are or have been employed by the Defendants as cooks, dishwashers, stock suppliers, food prep, fish-cleaners, or other similarly titled personnel with substantially similar job requirements and pay provisions, who were performing the same sort of functions for Defendants, other than the executive and management positions, who have been subject to Defendants' common practices, policies, programs, procedures, protocols and plans including willfully failing and refusing to pay required overtime wage compensation.
55. Upon information and belief, Defendants employed approximately 20-30 employees within the relevant time-period who were subjected to similar payment structures.
56. Upon information and belief, Defendants suffered and permitted Plaintiff and the Collective Class to work more than forty hours per week without appropriate overtime compensation.
57. Defendants' unlawful conduct has been widespread, repeated, and consistent.
58. Upon information and belief, Defendants had knowledge that Plaintiff and the Collective Class performed work requiring overtime pay.
59. Defendants' conduct as set forth in this Complaint, was willful and in bad faith, and has caused significant damages to Plaintiff and the Collective Class.
60. Defendants are liable under the FLSA for failing to properly compensate Plaintiff and the Collective Class, and as such, notice should be sent to the Collective Class. There are numerous similarly situated current and former employees of Defendants who have been denied overtime pay in violation of the FLSA and NYLL, who would benefit from the issuance of a Court-supervised notice of the present lawsuit, and the opportunity to join the present lawsuit. Those similarly situated employees are known to Defendants and are readily identifiable through Defendants' records.
61. The questions of law and fact common to the putative class predominate over any questions affecting only individual members.
62. The claims of Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the putative class.

63. Plaintiff and his counsel will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the putative class.
64. A collective action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Overtime Wages Under The Fair Labor Standards Act

65. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all allegations in all preceding paragraphs.
66. Plaintiff has consented in writing to be a party to this action, pursuant to 29 U.S.C. §216(b).

87. Defendants failed to record, credit or compensate Plaintiff the applicable minimum hourly wage, in violation of the New York Minimum Wage Act, specifically NYLL §652.
88. Defendants also failed to pay Plaintiff the required minimum wage, which Plaintiff was entitled under NYLL §652, in violation of 12 N. Y. C. R. R. 137-1.3.
89. Due to Defendants' NYLL violations, Plaintiff is entitled to recover from Defendants, jointly and severally, his unpaid minimum wages and an amount equal to their unpaid minimum wages in the form of liquidated damages, as well as reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of the action, including interest in accordance with NYLL §198 (1-a).

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Spread of Hours Compensation Under New York Labor Law

90. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference all allegations in all preceding paragraphs.
91. Defendants willfully violated Plaintiffs' rights by failing to pay Plaintiffs an additional hour of pay at minimum wage for each day worked more than ten (10) hours, in violation of the New York Minimum Wage Act and its implementing regulations. N.Y. Labor Law §§ 650 et seq.; 12 N.Y. C. R. R. § 142-2.4
